

JAM SESSION

[ JOINT + MUSCULOSKELETAL PAIN ]

Saturday 25 February 2023

|             |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|-------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 0930 - 0955 | Attend our Virtual Exhibition Hall                                                                                                                                                        |
| 0955 - 1000 | Welcome                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 1000 - 1215 | RHEUMATOLOGY REASONING (Moderator: Ilana Ginges)Our aim is to present common cases and work through the clinical reasoning behind investigation, diagnosis and management. |
| 1000 - 1030 | Hidden in Plain Sight - understanding inflammatory back pain. Kate Celkys , Rheumatologist                                                                                         |
| 1035 - 1105 | What to expect when she is expecting? Shirley Yu , Rheumatologist                                                                                                                  |
| 1110 - 1140 | When Lupus Isn't Enough. Pauline Habib , Rheumatologist                                                                                                                            |
| 1145 - 1215 | Not so crystal clear - investigating intermittent arthritis. Fabio Kullock , Rheumatologist                                                                                        |
| 1215 - 1300 | LUNCH - Check out our Virtual Exhibition Hall                                                                                                                                             |
|             | STREAM 1 WHAT, HOW &amp; WHY? (Moderator: Irwin Lim)                                                                                                                               |
| 1305 - 1335 | How to approach the low neutrophil and/or the low lymphocyte count?Ming- Celine Dubosq , Haematologist                                                                         |
| 1340 - 1410 | Radiology update on the Knee by James Linklater , Radiologist                                                                                                                      |
| 1415 - 1445 | How a COVID-19 vaccine was rapidly developed and the future potential of mRNA technology.Krishan Thiru , Medical Director, Pfizer                                              |
| 1450 - 1520 | Blood tests we order in Rheumatology: why, when & how to interpret?Queenie Luu &amp; Adam Maundrell , Rheumatologists                                                          |
|             | STREAM 2 Updates &amp; New Initiatives (Moderator: Herman Lau)                                                                                                                     |
| 1305 - 1335 | How to approach the child with a painful hip? Davinder Singh-Grewal , Paediatric Rheumatologist                                                                                    |
| 1340 - 1410 | A physiotherapist's approach to helping a child with oligoarticular inflammatory arthritis?Blanche Leung , Physiotherapist                                                     |
| 1415 - 1500 | Treating an ACL rupture without surgery. Errol Lim , Physiotherapist & Tom Cross , Sports Physician                                                                         |
| 1505 - 1520 | BJC Connect for Health Practitioners - an education hub for things rheumatologyErrol Lim , Physiotherapist                                                                     |
| 1520 - 1522 | Closing Words                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 1530 - 1600 | Special Event: The Post-Conference WORKOUT!                                                                                                                                        |

